THE CONDITION OF THE WORKING CLASS

Runtime: 82 mins (Michael Wayne & Deirdre O'Neill)

1844: Friedrich Engels writes his book The Condition of the Working Class in England, a classic denunciation of the appalling living conditions for working people living at the heart of the Industrial Revolution. In 2012 a group of working class people from Salford and Manchester have the job of devising a theatrical show from scratch based on their own experiences and Engels' book. They have just 8 weeks before their first performance. This film follows the process from the first rehearsal to first night and situates their stories in the context of the daily struggles of working people facing economic crisis and austerity politics.

LOCATION: THE MECHANICS INSTITUTE, 103 PRINCESS STREET, MANCHESTER M1 (PTO for map).
